When the Hair Falls Out

accompanied by mucous patches in the mouth, eruptions on the skin, sore throat, copper colored spots, swollen glands, aching muscles and bones, the disease is making rapid headway, and far worse symptoms will follow unless the blood is promptly and effectually cleansed of this violent destructive poison.

S. S. S. is the only safe and infallible cure for this disease, the only antidote for this specific poison. It cures the worst cases thoroughly and permanently.

My Condition Could Have Been No Worse.

In the fall of 1897 I contracted Blood Poison. I tried all kinds of treatments, but their treatment did me no good; I was getting worse all the time; my hair came out, ulcers appeared in my throat and mouth, my body was almost covered with copper colored patches and offensive sores. I suffered severely from rheumatic pains in my shoulders and arms. My condition could have been no worse; only those afflicted with it can understand my sufferings. I had almost lost all hope of ever being well again when I decided to try S. S. S.

At first I was doubtful, but I had a little faith left in any medicine. After taking the third bottle I noticed a change in my condition. This was truly encouraging, and I determined to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. From that time on the improvement was rapid; S. S. S. seemed to have the disease completely under control; the sores and ulcers healed and I was soon free from all signs of the disorder. I have been strong and healthy ever since.

MARRIED A DUKE.

Daughter of a Cincinnati Business Man Joined to a Royalist.

MATCH OPPOSED BY RELATIVES

Will Travel in the United States on Their Wedding Trip—Father of the Bride Denies That His Daughter Has Entered the Nuptial State. Case of Mutual Love.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—It is announced in a cablegram from London to the Journal and Advertiser that the young Duke of Manchester and Miss Helene Zimmerman, daughter of Eugene Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, were married last Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Canon Baker, in the Parish church, of Marylebone, London, in which parish the duke lives.

Owing to the opposition to the marriage by the relatives of both bride and groom, the wedding was extremely quiet. The Misses Helena and Effie Evans, aunts of the bride, waited on her; Ernest Lambert and Lionel Fun-del-Phillips, the duke's most intimate friends, attended him.

The duke and duchess and Miss Helene Evans are now at Ganderage castle, the groom's Irish estate. The place was en fête on their arrival; the duke's tenants welcomed him and his bride vociferously. The duke and duchess will sail for America next Saturday.

Duke a Country Squire.

The duchess, who has been in Europe since last September, has been living with her aunts in Paris; the duke lately has been leading the life of a country squire at Tanderage castle.

Mr. Zimmerman had intended to go to England from America this month, when the sweethearts intended to beg for his consent to their marriage. But a few days ago he called he could not get away and the duke and Miss Zimmerman decided to wed immediately.

Miss Zimmerman and the Misses Evans came from Paris and stayed at the Crescent hotel. The duke came from Tanderage castle and went to his mother's house, no banns being published. The bride wore a handsome gown of white cloth. She wore no jewelry.

An Explicit Denial.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—A special to the Tribune from Cincinnati, Ohio, says: Eugene Zimmerman, father of Miss Helene, when told of his daughter's reported marriage said:

"You cannot make my denial too explicit, for there is absolutely no truth in the report. There has been no marriage. If there had I would certainly have heard of it, and not a word have I received. Why, my daughter is on the ocean at this minute on the steamship Campana, and which is expected to arrive at New York on Wednesday. She will be accompanied by her aunt, Miss Evans, and no one else."

Proven to be True.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—An inspection of the register of the Marylebone Parish church, to-day shows that the reported marriage of the Duke of Manchester to Miss Helene Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, is true. The ceremony occurred last Wednesday afternoon. The couple are now in Ireland.

When the dowager Duchess of Manchester was asked by a representative of the Associated Press this morning if the report of the marriage was correct, she denied it absolutely, alleging that the announcement was made at the desire of a certain person who devoutly hoped the marriage would occur. She evinced extreme displeasure at the idea of her son marrying Miss Zimmerman.

Billet Mill Resumes Operations.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 18.—The billet mill and converters of the Illinois steel works resumed operations to-night after a three weeks' shut down. About 1,600 men resumed work. The outlook is good for a long run.

Delightful Relief from Catarrh.

Here is one of a thousand such testimonials. The Rev. A. B. Buckley, of Buffalo, says: "I wish all to know what a blessing Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is in a case of Catarrh. I was troubled with this disease for years, but the first time I used this remedy it gave me most delightful relief. I now regard myself entirely cured after using it for two months." ...SOCIETY...

Mrs. John B. Garden charmingly entertained a number of friends informally Saturday afternoon, in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Trotter. A distinguishing and appreciated feature of the reception was its originality, each guest having been asked to represent some song. The presentations were unique and the hours, from 2 to 5, spent in delightful study of each guest as she stood for a few minutes before the assembled onlookers, all wearing a "thinking cap," given by the hostess as souvenirs of the occasion. Many guesses fell far short of the intention of the personator, but there came the fun. Forty-one guests were present and twenty-six correct guesses were the highest score. Miss Emily Sheppard winning the first prize. Mrs. Trotter, in whose honor the affair was given, came second, and Miss Frew took the other prize. Songs represented were "Under the Daisies," by Mrs. Flora Williams, wearing a bunch of daisies on her hat; Mrs. John M. Birch had pinned on the picture of a toying man between two whiskey-labeled bottles, "Comin' Through the Rye"; Mrs. Harry C. Franzheim wore a little card with four pickaninny heads painted on it, "All Cocks Look Alike"; Mrs. Sallie McCollough with a tiny green bow, "Wearin' o' the Green"; Mrs. Bernie S. McLure, wearing a falling-to-pieces red rose, represented "The Last Rose of Summer"; Mrs. Edwin M. Holliday, with a blue silk waist having a gray ribbon at the neck and belt, "The Blue and the Gray"; Mrs. A. J. Stoney represented "Yankee Doodle"; Mrs. J. H. Little, "Old Black Joe." Originality is not an easy matter in social entertainment and when planned and successfully carried out, as this was, is appreciated by all invited.
